Senior System Architect

Experience. Delivered.

Overview

Continue your system architect journey by learning by learning how to improve your Pega Platform implementation skills.

Through demonstrations, discussions and lots of hands-on exercises, you will learn about application design and especially designing for reuse.

This course goes into more detail on topics like rule resolution, enterprise class hierarchy design and creating new applications. It also covers advanced topics on reporting, integration, error handling, log file analysis and debugging, process modelling, background processing, access control and much, much more.

Implementation ready.
Classroom experience.
Hands-on learning

labb courses are designed and developed by Pega-certified experts.

Attendees interact with an expert instructor, receiving comprehensive, clear, and concise learning during class, to acquire the skills needed to implement high-quality Pega applications.

We provide you with the skills and hands-on experience required to successfully design, build and deploy Pega solutions. At the same time, preparing you to become a Pega Certified Professional.

Benefits

By the end of this course, you will be able to successfully:

• Create and extend a Pega application
• Manage rules and rulesets
• Manage the specialization and reuse of rules
• Describe the rule resolution process
• Manage data access within an application
• Manage data access between a Pega Platform application and external systems via REST
• Manage integration settings
• Configure application security and user privileges
• Design and deploy mobile apps for Pega Platform applications

Details

Target Audience
System architects and developers who are looking to take their Pega skills and knowledge to the next level.

Prerequisites System Architect Essentials
Length 10 classroom days
Delivery Instructor-led
Topics

• Case management	• Data management
• DevOps	• Integration
• Platform	• Managing rules
• Reporting	• Security
• User experience	• Application development

Become a Pega Certified Senior System Architect

The PCSSA certification focuses on the ability to take a leading role in the design and configuration of Pega apps and the daily activities of an implementation team.